

Monarch Studios is now Monvera

New ownership expands capabilities and service offerings

Oakland CA, January 30th 2008 – Monarch Studios, a provider of glass decoration services to the beverage and food industry, will now do business under the name Monvera. The Monvera name change is one of several initiatives underway at the company. Operating under a new ownership group, the company is investing in new capacity, capability and customer service resources. Building upon Monvera’s 15 years of experience, the company promises to offer its clients the highest quality glass decoration services in the industry, combined with the most responsive and accommodating customer service.

The glass decorating process offers clients a new dimension and enhanced flexibility in branding and labeling their products. It is rapidly becoming the process of choice for many distinctive brands in their quest to differentiate their offerings and connect with the end customer. The Monvera team is committed to combining artisan-level attention to detail with state-of –the-art production capabilities to meet the unique needs of each client. “Our goal is to use our expertise and capability to provide innovative and attractive solutions to our customers’ unique needs”, said Sadegh Ghorban, Monvera Vice President.
